Konrad Adenauer Foundation Hosts Symposium in Seoul

Mr. Marc Ziemek, representative of Konrad Adenauer Foundation in Korea, hosted "Koreanisch-Deutsches Symposium 2006" at the Conference Hall of Daewoo Center building in downtown Seoul on Dec. 18, 2006.

The political symposium dubbed as "Parteiendemokratie und Politische Stiftungen," which started at 2 p.m. on the day and lasted for four hours, was joined by many local scholars including Dr. Karsten Grabow from Germany. The scholars discussed the roles of political party and its foundation in democracy in the symposium.
