

Dr. Konrad Adenauer (1876 - 1967)
First Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany

Konrad Adenauer was the first Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany (1949
- 1963). The period of his chancellorship is associated with the establishment of democracy within Germany, the reconciliation of Germany with its neighbours, the economic boom and the unification of Europe. The Konrad Adenauer Stiftung is committed to preserve Konrad Adenauer's legacy.

Dr. Andreas Jacobs
(Resident Representative)
8, Salah El Din, 7th floor
Zamalek, Cairo

Tel: +20 -2- 273 774 50
Fax: +20 -2- 273 774 54

office@kafegypt.com
www.kas.de/aegypten

International Cooperation

The Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Egypt

KONRAD ADENAUER STIFTUNG
IDEA AND MISSION

The Konrad Adenauer Stiftung was established in 1964. Since then, the Foundation has been working on attaining peace, freedom and democracy in Germany, Europe and the whole world. Through a variety of activities such as seminars, conferences, scholarships and exhibitions, the Foundation supports democracy, social market economy, rule of law, and the unification of Europe. In Germany, 18 civic education centers represent the Foundation. Worldwide, around 70 offices pursue the institution's objectives in more than 100 countries.

The Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Berlin and in Sankt Augustin near Bonn

KONRAD ADENAUER STIFTUNG EGYPT
OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES

Political participation and civic engagement

Dialogue and understanding between cultures and religions

Sustainable democracy and rule of law

Social market economy and social equality

KONRAD ADENAUER STIFTUNG EGYPT
ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

The office of the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Egypt was founded in 1979. It carries out a number of activities in several fields including:

Workshops and seminars aimed at achieving civic education

Conferences discussing current political issues

Academic exchange between German and Egyptian scholars

Publications, studies, and scientific analyses to promote background information

Lectures and discussions chaired by German and Egyptian politicians