

Ramallah: President meets delegation of the German Christian Democratic Party

President Mahmoud Abbas yesterday welcomed a delegation of the CDU headed by Mr. Schockenhoff.

The Head of the German Representative Office in Ramallah attended the meeting in which the difficult political and economic situation of the Palestinians under the Israeli occupation was discussed.

In the context of the continuing Israeli military operations in the Palestinian Territories, especially the expected operation in Gaza, the efforts to establish a Unified National Government as the only way to end the daily suffering of the Palestinian people were pointed out.
